The Late Captain Dyas T. Parker.

Speaking of our late fellow-citizen, Captain D. T. Parker, deceased, the Jonesboro Gazette says: "He was identified with the State Agricultural Society from its first organization, and was viceeast side of Eigeth street, between Com- president at the time of his death, and was one of the most able members of the State Board of Agriculture. He was a member of the Cairo Board of Trade, and of the Odd-Fellow fratermy, by whom his remains were interred with appropriate honors on Tuesday. Southern Illinois has lost one of its best citizens, and his decease is deplored by a large circle of friends throughout the State. Having been honored with the triendship of Captain Parker for a number of years, we deeply feel this affliction, and join in our condelence with the relatives and friends."

Resolutions of Respect. At the regular meeting of Alexander Lodge, No. 224, I. O. O. F., held on Thursday evening last, Dec. 2, the following resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Dyas T. Parker, who was a member of said Lodge, were adopted: Resolved, That in the death of our brother, Dyas T. Parker, Alexander Lodge has lost a member faithful to the principles of the order, and one in whose example his brethren found much to admire and profit by.

Resolved, That not only as an Odd Fellow, but also as a citizen and business man, faithful in his public duties, and honest in his dealings, his fellow-citizens and neighbors have sustained a great loss in the death of our late brother. Resolved, That we condole and sympathize with his family and friends. Resolved, That in token of our respect for the memory of the deceased, and in honor of his many virtues, a page of the journal of the lodge, suitably inscribed, be set apart sacred to his memory. Resolved. That a copy of these resolu-
